You spend your workday caring for others; take a day of self-care for you! It's time to release your exhaustion and to care for your own soul, energy, and emotions. Come and spend a spacious day with other caring professionals and let the healing power of horses help you slow down, reflect, and have fun!

Why Eremos Consulting?
"Eremos" is Greek for wilderness, desert. It is the same root word that is used to describe the desert mothers and fathers. It is the name of this consulting group because it speaks to the sense of isolation, wandering, and helplessness that can occur in the wilderness, and yet also calls to the hope, nurture, renewal, and clarity that one also finds in the wilderness. It is during this complex experience of lostness, profound awe, fear, and ultimately clarity of purpose where Eremos Consulting seeks to be a resource and consultant with those going through such an experience.
